Reflection for a New Year

Life is strangely, quietly ironic....

It takes sadness to teach the worth of happiness,
noise to reveal the gift of silence, absence to awaken us to the treasure of someone's presence,
hard seasons to show us the beauty of provision.

So often, we can only understand the value of what we hold when we imagine life without it.

And we strive ahead as if time and happenstance are things we command...

May we learn to cherish what makes us feel blessed, whole and alive now — before loss is the one that teaches us how precious it all was.

Echoes of Insight, Wings of Words (online).

Parish Voice:

Thank you to those who have contributed so far. Due out in January.

Parish Christmas Raffle

Thank you to all those who managed to sell tickets & to those who were able to donate the various items for the eventual very appreciative winners.

Anglicare Christmas Toy/Food Hampers

Anglicare wishes to extend huge appreciation to all those who donated goods for their Christmas toy & food hampers.

From Parish Council

Hopefully by now many of us have had the chance to meet and chat with Chikelue S Nwargwy during our worship times. Parish Council have been discussing ways in which our parish can support Chikelue in the ministry he leads among the indigenous community in Whitmore Square through Good Intention Ministry. This Ministry actively ministers in the community, especially the Aboriginal community, leading individuals to Christ through pastoral care, preaching, and acts of practical compassion. Ministry activities include spiritual development through bible studies and prayer sessions, evangelical outreach, and weekly food distributions to vulnerable families and individuals.

Soon there will be a box placed at the back of St Philip's where donations of food items can be placed for anyone who is able to donate items – similar to those that are put in the Anglicare basket. Please pray for Chikelue, and those who assist him in this Ministry.
